

The Madison Police Department Is in the Final Week of This Year's Hiring Process

Dear Members of the Madison Community:

As they do each year, the Madison Police Department is currently seeking candidates for the position of Police Officer. If you, or someone you know, is interested in learning more about the opportunity to serve our citizens and community in this important role, please let them know. Their annual hiring campaign is nearing its end. They are currently accepting applications for the September of 2016 Academy. The application deadline is 2 November 2015.

The Department wants to attract and retain men and women who reflect the diversity of our community. They want to recruit applicants who can communicate effectively, both verbally and in writing. They need individuals who can enforce the law while protecting the constitutional rights of all. The Madison Police Department seeks committed individuals who want to work with a multicultural citizenry in improving our quality of life.

Previous experience may include work in teaching, social work, business, law enforcement or a variety of other professions. They are by no means a "one size fits all" employer ... they value the diversity of all academic, work and life experience.

Anyone interested in learning more about this opportunity can visit the department's website or contact Sgt. Tim Patton directly. The Join the Team page of the MPD website can be found at <http://www.cityofmadison.com/police/jointeam>.
